The announcement of the election results referred to above shall not prejudice the duties and powers of the Election Commission to conduct an investigation, inquiry, or adjudication where there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the election was not conducted honestly or fairly.

The Office of the Election Commission further wishes to inform that the Director of Provincial Election will, in due course, issue a written notification of the announcement of the election results to each candidate declared elected.

For further information regarding the announcement of the election results for the local administrators and members of local assemblies, enquiries may be made to the relevant Provincial Office of the Election Commission (where the election was held) or via the Election Commission Hotline 1444.
